WYNZORA - (0.064%;0.005% ; Cream)

Generic Name	BETAMETHASONE DIPROPIONATE; CALCIPOTRIENE	Innovator	MC2
Dosage	0.064%;0.005% ; Cream	Branded US Sales	Less Than $1000 mn
Probable FTF	None	Known Para IV Filers	None
Other ANDA developers	None	Tentative Approvals	None
Final Approvals	None	Generic Launches	None
Indication	WYNZORA Cream is a combination of calcipotriene, a vitamin D analog, and betamethasone dipropionate, a corticosteroid, indicated for the topical treatment of plaque psoriasis in patients 18 years of age and older.
Complexities	Yes

Chronology Of Events

Please Contact contact@researchdelta.com to get Detailed Information.

Executive Summary

Please Contact contact@researchdelta.com to get Detailed Information.

Patent Status

Please Contact contact@researchdelta.com to get Detailed Information.

Launch Timelines and Competition

Please Contact contact@researchdelta.com to get Detailed Information.

Chronology Of Events

Please Contact contact@researchdelta.com to get Detailed Information.